Democratic Meeting at Columbus, Indiana. There will be held a mass meeting of the Democracy, at Columbne, Ind., on the 17th | source of general gratification. His iust. Those champions of Deticeracy and non intervention, Gov. Willand, Gen. J. I' McDonald, H n. C. L D nham, Col. John In Ige Joyes, as a terre of the Fenish Ward, on Wellesslay, August 15th, H. Harney, Hon John Y. Brown, and others Bar, elso made a short speech, which was at right and of their hall on the corner will address the meeting very appropriate.

Speaking of the late Democrati Convention in this city, the Courier egys: "We recognized by few of those who have been accustomed form the the annual convocations of the party at Frankfort."

Just so, neighber. That is just what we have been telling you for the last month The trading politicians of the party-th wire-workers who have made politics trade-the cross roads great i en who hav been in the bath of jushing themselve forward in conventions and 1 litical gatherings, have all mis I the tril Their noses were at faul in meling of the strong side. They took their cue free Washington City, and are all epen-mouthed to her futher when this vile deed was com for the Bolter's Disuni n ticket. On the other hand, the l'e accratic people, the men who, in ordinary times, have been conten to let these jugging ricksters engineer the party, have now lak nilce reof the good old ship into their ewn hands. The people come themselves to the C nachtion, instead of sending profession l phicians, in whom they have lost confidence. It is not surpris have felt like a cat in a strange garret when | mort us in New Orleans on the 7th inst. he found himself i such a crowd.

The Kentucky Breckinrilge Bolter have been so far encourage! by the votreceived by McClarty, that they now claim to hold the balance of power in the State between Bell and Douglas They should recollect that a large proportion of the men who voted for McClarty are out and out Douglas Democrats. Another large portion ashamed of the small crowd in which they have so suddenly found themselves, will come back again to the Democratic party The four or five thereand votes that Breckinridge will get in No ember, if he remains a candidate, will not be missed from our induce them to keep about as many of their and they may have a fair stand up tussic for was for ten dollars aside.
